FOR WEBSITE DEVELOPERS · FINAL BRIEF

Ensign Supports

Five separate pages. Locked vision, mission, values, and the Why Ensign paragraph are in section 6 — use them word-for-word.

Hero: wordmark + “NDIS support coordination and psychosocial recovery coaching.” Buttons: View services · Make a referral. Small type: currently South East Queensland.

Short explainer only (full copy on Services):

> “Support coordination helps you understand your NDIS plan, find the right supports, and keep those supports working together.”

Two teaser cards linking to Services. One-line who we work with. Values strip on Home uses the three names only; full sentences on About us.

> “Ensign Supports works with self-managed and plan-managed NDIS participants.”

5. Page — Services

Own URL. Two services, equal weight. No extra service lines.

>
> Support coordination — We help participants and families understand their NDIS plan, connect with the right supports, and keep services working together. We work alongside plan managers, health professionals, and other providers so the plan is used in a practical, coordinated way.
>
> Psychosocial recovery coaching — We support participants living with psychosocial disability to build skills, routines, and community connections that matter to them. Coaching is practical and participant-led. It is not clinical treatment.

No promised outcomes or extra funding. End with a button to Referral.

6. Page — About us

Company only. No director personal information.

Experience that may be used: disability and the NDIS, including psychosocial disability; psychosocial recovery coaching; seven or more years in mental health and disability services.

Draft company paragraph

> Ensign Supports provides NDIS support coordination and psychosocial recovery coaching. We work with people with disability, including psychosocial disability, and with the families and professionals around them. The team brings more than seven years’ experience in mental health and disability services, and practical knowledge of the NDIS.

Why Ensign — heading plus this paragraph, word-for-word

> The word ensign means a flag — a mark of direction. Ensign Supports helps NDIS participants navigate their disability journey. We stand with them, work with them, and support them on that journey.

Place under the heading “Why Ensign”, after the company paragraph and before Vision / Mission / Values.

Vision, mission, values — word-for-word

Vision

> Ensign Supports helps people navigate their disability journey, building independence and meeting their disability-related needs.

Mission

> Ensign Supports helps NDIS participants understand their plan, connect with the right service providers, manage their supports, and build their capacity to work towards greater independence.

Values

> Compassion — genuine care for participants and families, not just service delivery.

Integrity — honest hours, honest invoicing to plan managers, honest reporting to the NDIA.

Advocacy — actively representing participants' interests within the NDIS system, especially those it tends to overlook.
